

The 2023 Ann and Ari Rosenblatt Artists House Prize

Ann and Ari Rosenblatt with the Tel Aviv Artist House are proud to announce a new prize of 40,000 NIS.

The ARTIST PRIZE will be awarded to an active Israeli based artist in the aim of promoting and encouraging Israeli artistic creation.

Eligibility: the prize is open to artists who graduated from the various academies at least 8 years ago, and have since exhibited at least 10 solo/group exhibitions in select art venues and whose works have been documented and featured in catalogues or in other publications.

The selected artist will receive:

* A prize of 20,000 NIS

(The remaining 20,000 NIS will be used to cover part of the expenses like PR services and exhibition catalogue)

*A solo exhibition in the space of the Upper Gallery at the Tel Aviv Artist House, curated by Orly Hoffman.

Committee members:

Dr Galia Bar Or: Curator and art researcher

Dalit Matatyahu: Senior Curator of Israeli Art, Tel Aviv Museum of Art

Dr. Kobi Ben-Meir: Chief Curator, Haifa Museum of Art
