

Open Call for the Ann and Ari Rosenblatt Prize for Visual Art 2024

Ann and Ari Rosenblatt and the Tel Aviv Artist House are proud to announce the 8th edition of the Prize for Visual Art that will be awarded to an active, Israeli-based artist, with the aim of promoting and encouraging Israeli artistic creation.

The prize is open to artists who graduated from the various academies at least 8 years ago, have since exhibited at least 10 solo and group exhibitions in select art venues, and whose works have been documented and featured in catalogues or other publications.

The selected artist will be awarded a prize of 40,000 ILS of which 15,000 ILS will be awarded as a cash prize - artist fee for the artist and the rest for the production of the show. The artist will exhibit a solo exhibition in the 150m Upper Gallery of the Tel Aviv Artist House, curated by Nir Harmat.

The remaining balance will be applied to the production of a catalogue.

The selected artist will be announced in June 2024 and will have a period of 10 to 12 months to realise the proposal.

Committee Members:

Dr. Galia Bar Or: Curator and art researcher, former director of Mishkan Museum of Art, Ein Harod

Dr. Kobi Ben-Meir: Chief Curator, Haifa Museum of Art

Dalit Matiyahu: Senior Curator of Israeli Art, Tel Aviv Museum of Art

Arie Berkowitz: Director and head curator, Tel Aviv Artist House

Nir Harmat: Independent curator and art researcher, curator of the Prize exhibition

Ann and Ari Rosenblatt: Art collectors, founders and donors of the Prize

Application Process:

Applicants are requested to submit their application before 04/20/2024 in a single PDF file only via email to: rosenblattartprize@gmail.com.

The application should include:

- The applicant's CV, up to 2 pages including contact details.
- A portfolio of 10 images of artworks from the last five years including title, date, technique and size.
- A proposal for a solo exhibition suited to the 150m Upper Gallery of the Tel Aviv Artist House with a short text (of up to 600 words) describing the project and relevant information.
- Images of simulations or works in progress for the proposed exhibition - up to 10 images.

- Links to publications about the artist, catalogues, the artist's website, and any other relevant material.
- Please abide by our technical instructions following.

Technical Instructions:

- The application may be submitted in Hebrew, however, submitting the application also in English will be very much appreciated.
- Please limit your application to one email containing up to 25MB the application must be sent in a single PDF file.
- Videos should be submitted by uploading them to a video-sharing site such as Vimeo or Youtube. Please add links to your video files in the proposal documents, not to the email.
- Please do not send applications through file-sharing sites. We will not download them.

Summary:

- The application may be submitted in Hebrew, however, submitting it also in English will be very much appreciated.
- Application deadline: 04/20/2024
- The winner will be announced in June 2024
- Email the application to: rosenblattartprize@gmail.com
- Please direct all inquiries to our email only.

We would like to thank all the applicants in advance and wish everyone good luck.